Main musical exercise in G major, 2/4 time. The exercise consists of seven staves of music. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The first staff contains eighth and sixteenth notes with rests. The second staff starts with a piano (p) dynamic and includes slurs and ties. The third and fourth staves continue the melodic and rhythmic development. The fifth and sixth staves feature more complex rhythmic patterns. The seventh staff concludes with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and a fermata over a whole note.

Var. I

Variation I of the main exercise, marked with a 'V' in a circle. It is in 6/8 time and consists of four staves. The first staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic and includes triplets. The second and third staves continue the melodic line with various rhythmic values and slurs. The fourth staff is labeled 'Double tonguing' and ends with a trill.

Var. II

Five staves of musical notation for trumpet. The first four staves contain complex rhythmic patterns with many slurs and accents. The fifth staff ends with a fermata marked with the number 7.

Var. III
Andante (♩)

Five staves of musical notation for trumpet, starting with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The notation includes complex rhythmic patterns, slurs, and accents, with a tempo marking of Andante (♩).

This section contains the main body of the musical score, spanning measures 1 through 24. It is written for a single melodic line on a trumpet. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The first measure begins with a piano (pp) dynamic and includes the vocalization "tu ku". The melody is characterized by rapid sixteenth-note passages, often beamed in groups of four. Measures 13 and 14 feature a change in the melodic contour, moving from a descending line to an ascending one. The score concludes with a final measure (measure 24) that includes a fermata and a repeat sign.

Var. IV

This section presents Variation IV of the piece, covering measures 25 through 32. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a 6/8 time signature. The melody starts with a half rest followed by a quarter note, then continues with a series of eighth-note patterns. The dynamic marking mf (mezzo-forte) is indicated below the first measure. The variation features a mix of eighth-note runs and longer note values, with some measures containing slurs. The piece ends with a final measure (measure 32) that includes a fermata.

The main musical score consists of eight staves of music. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major). The music features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped in beams. Slurs are used to indicate phrasing across multiple measures. The notation includes various accidentals (sharps, flats, naturals) and dynamic markings (accents) to guide the performer.

Coda

The Coda section is a single staff of music. It begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The melody is simple, consisting of quarter and eighth notes. The lyrics "tu ku tu ku tu ku" are written below the notes.

The final musical staff of the score. It continues the melodic line from the Coda section. The lyrics "tu tu ku tu tu tu tu" are written below the notes. The piece concludes with a final cadence, marked by a double bar line.
